Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☐ Responsive to communication(s) filed on ____.
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-4 and 6-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Saito et al (6782717).

Saito et al teach a method comprising the steps of polishing glass substrate (18), a treating liquid (col.4, lines 1-4 (colloidal particles) and col.11, lines 29-31 (shows a liquid being pure water), a tape (23), disturbance of the texture is reduce (note the pure water for cleaning the glass substrate reads on this limitation), a magnetic layer (col.7, lines 28-30), and a texture being formed along a circumference direction of the magnetic disk (abstract).

In regard to claims 8-9, see in particular claim 8 and then look at entire patent.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claim 5 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Saito et al (6782717) in view of Shimada (6632547).

a. Saito et al are discussed above.

b. Saito et al teach the claimed method steps except for chemical strengthened glass substrates.

c. Shimada teaches a method comprising the steps of polishing glass substrate (col.1, 53-55 and fig.2a), a treating liquid (col.3, line 55 and col.5, 47-55 which shows a liquid having colloidal particles), a tape (col.5, 47-53), and a chemical strengthening (col.4, 45-65 and throughout the patent there are numerous other mentions.) which also for strengthening of a glass substrate.

d. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have modified the Saito et al device by providing the chemical strengthened glass substrates step as taught by Shimada which also for strengthening of a glass substrate.

5. Claim 5 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Saito et al (6782717) in view of Saito et al (2003/0110803A1).

e. Saito et al are discussed above.

- f. Saito et al teach the claimed method steps except for chemical strengthened glass substrates.
- g. Saito et al (2003/0110803A1) teach a method comprising the steps of polishing glass substrate (abstract), a treating liquid (40 and a liquid having colloidal particles), a treating liquid (pure water par.98), a tape (30), and a chemical strengthening (abstract and throughout the patent there are numerous other mentions.) which also for strengthening of a glass substrate.
- h. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have modified the Saito et al device by providing the chemical strengthened glass substrates step as taught by Saito et al (2003/0110803A1) which also for strengthening of a glass substrate.

Response to Arguments

- 6. Applicant's arguments filed 7/31/06 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.
- 7. Applicant feels that the prior art does not read on the instant invention in view of the amendmemt.
 - i. The prior art discloses values within this range and the actual range. Please note the citations col.5, lines 45-53 and col.6, lines 58-67 and col.9, lines 66-67 and col.10, lines 27-34. and claim 8.
